A Teenager's View of Heaven

Cheri sent me this e-mail last month after it had circulated around the faculty at her school in Allen. It is a very profound insight from a young man, and I wanted to share this with you in some way. It seemed a bit long for a sermon illustration. Yet, as we begin this new year together, I felt this story would be a wonderful way to begin anew, as forgiven brothers and sisters in Christ. We share a ministry together... for that I am thankful. God still uses us to His glory. I leave you now with Brian's story.

17-year-old Brian Moore had only a short time to write something for a class. The subject was what Heaven was like. "I wowed 'em," he later told his father, Bruce. "It's a killer. It's the bomb. It's the best thing I ever wrote.." It also was the last.

Brian Moore died May 27, 1997, the day after Memorial Day. He was driving home from a friend's house when his car went off Bulen-Pierce Road in Pickaway County and struck a utility pole. He emerged from the wreck unharmed but stepped on a downed power line and was electrocuted.

The Moores framed a copy of Brian's essay and hung it among the family portraits in the living room. "I think God used him to make a point. I think we were meant to find it and make something out of it," Mrs. Moore said of the essay. She and her husband want to share their son's vision of life after death. "I'm happy for Brian. I know he's in heaven. I know I'll see him."

Brian's Essay: The Room...

In that place between wakefulness and dreams, I found myself in the room. There were no distinguishing features except for the one wall covered with small index card files. They were like the ones in libraries that list titles by author or subject in alphabetical order.

But these files, which stretched from floor to ceiling and seemingly endless in either direction, had very different headings. As I drew near the wall of files, the first to catch my attention was one that read "Girls I have liked." I opened it and began flipping through the cards. I quickly shut it, shocked to realize that I recognized the names written on each one.

And then without being told, I knew exactly where I was. This lifeless room with its small files was a crude catalog system for my life. Here were written the actions of my every moment, big and small, in a detail my memory couldn't match. A sense of wonder and curiosity, coupled with horror, stirred within me as I began randomly opening files and exploring their content.

Some brought joy and sweet memories; others a sense of shame and regret so intense that I would look over my shoulder to see if anyone was watching.

A file named "Friends" was next to one marked "Friends I have betrayed." The titles ranged from the mundane to the outright weird "Books I Have Read," "Lies I Have Told," "Comfort I have Given," "Jokes I Have Laughed at ." Some were almost hilarious in their exactness: "Things I've yelled at my brothers." Others I couldn't laugh at: "Things I Have Done in My Anger", "Things I Have Muttered Under My Breath at My Parents." I never ceased to be surprised by the contents.

Often there were many more cards than I expected. Sometimes fewer than I hoped. I was overwhelmed by the sheer volume of the life I had lived. Could it be possible that I had the time in my years to fill each of these thousands or even millions of cards? But each card confirmed this truth. Each was written in my own handwriting. Each signed with my signature.

When I pulled out the file marked "TV Shows I have watched", I realized the files grew to contain their contents. The cards were packed tightly, and yet after two or three yards, I hadn't found the end of the file. I shut it, shamed, not so much by the quality of shows but more by the vast time I knew that file represented.

When I came to a file marked "Lustful Thoughts," I felt a chill run through my body. I pulled the file out only an inch, not willing to test its size and drew out a card. I shuddered at its detailed content.

I felt sick to think that such a moment had been recorded. An almost animal rage broke on me. One thought dominated my mind: No one must ever see these cards! No one must ever see this room! I have to destroy them!" In insane frenzy I yanked the file out. Its size didn't matter now. I had to empty it and burn the cards. But as I took it at one end and began pounding it on the floor, I could not dislodge a single card. I became desperate and pulled out a card, only to find it as strong as steel when I tried to tear it.

Defeated and utterly helpless, I returned the file to its slot. Leaning my forehead against the wall, I let out a long, self-pitying sigh.

And then I saw it.. The title bore "People I Have Shared the Gospel With." The handle was brighter than those around it, newer, almost unused. I pulled on its handle and a small box not more than three inches long fell into my hands. I could count the cards it contained on one hand.

And then the tears came. I began to weep. Sobs so deep that they hurt. They started in my stomach and shook through me. I fell on my knees and cried. I cried out of shame, from the overwhelming shame of it all. The rows of file shelves swirled in my tear-filled eyes. No one must ever, ever know of this room. I must lock it up and hide the key. But then as I pushed away the tears, I saw Him.

No, please not Him. Not here. Oh, anyone but Jesus. I watched helplessly as He began to open the files and read the cards. I couldn't bear to watch His response. And in the moments I could bring myself to look at His face, I saw a sorrow deeper than my own.

He seemed to intuitively go to the worst boxes. Why did He have to read every one? Finally He turned and looked at me from across the room. He looked at me with pity in His eyes. But this was a pity that didn't anger me. I dropped my head, covered my face with my hands and began to cry again. He walked over and put His arm around me. He could have said so many things. But He didn't say a word. He just cried with me.

Then He got up and walked back to the wall of files. Starting at one end of the room, He took out a file and, one by one, began to sign His name over mine on each card. "No!" I shouted rushing to Him. All I could find to say was "No, no," as I pulled the card from Him. His name shouldn't be on these cards. But there it was, written in red so rich, so dark, so alive. The name of Jesus covered mine. It was written with His blood. He gently took the card back. He smiled a sad smile and began to sign the cards. I don't think I'll ever understand how He did it so quickly, but the next instant it seemed I heard Him close the last file and walk back to my side.

He placed His hand on my shoulder and said, "It is finished." I stood up, and He led me out of the room. There was no lock on its door. There were still cards to be written.

"I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me."-Phil. 4:13 "For God so loved the world that He gave His only son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life." My "People I shared the Gospel with" file just got bigger, how about yours?

"The will of God will never take you where the Grace of God will not protect you"

God's blessing to you in this Year of Our Lord, 2010.

--Pastor Lindner

A Special
THANK YOU

The staff at Lord of Life wishes to thank you, the members of our congregational family, for your Christmas gift. It continues to be a joy to serve you, and we look forward to a new year of service under His grace.

We are once again in need of housing for about 40 college-age students from the Concordia University, Chicago, Kappelle Choir who will be performing on the Fine

Arts/Concert Series on Friday, 12 March. If you would be willing to house some students (in groups/multiples of two), please contact Benjamin Kolodziej (bkolodzi@smu.edu) or Victoria Frinsko (vlfrinsko@tx.rr.com.)

The choir sings a setting of the famous hymn, "Gift of Love" as well as a new hymn in LSB, "Love in Christ is Strong and Living."

INVITATION TO JOIN OUR MUSICIANS:

January is a good time to join one of our choirs, as we begin all new music in preparation for Lent and Eastertide. The complete ensemble list and current rehearsal schedules are found on www.lol-piano.org/music.htm. All of our musicians will gladly welcome those who wish to join us for the following choirs:

- Adult Choir resumes rehearsal on Wednesday, 6 January, from 7-8.30pm. No musical experience or note-reading is needed, but a commitment to regular rehearsal is required.
- Jubilate Children's Choir for ages up to 5th grade resumes rehearsal on Sunday, 10 January at 4.30pm. Children learn the fundamentals of music and worship, and engage in weekly activities and craft. We sing both fun, action songs as well as the great hymns of the Church. We always welcome new children, and this is a good time to join.
- Youth Choir for ages 6th grade and up resumes on Sunday, 10 January at 5.30pm.
- Handbell Ensemble for everyone resumes on Wednesday, 6 January at 5.30pm. We are in need of some more ringers—please contact Vicki Frinsko if you are willing to serve in this way (vfrinsko@tx.rr.com.)

MUSIC AT MIDDAY ORGAN CONCERT

This month's concert will be on Wednesday, 6 January at 1.05pm with Benjamin Kolodziej performing a brief programme of Epiphany music, with commentary, and the customary time for requests at the end. These informal, informative concerts are held the first Wednesday of every month plus every Wednesday during Eastertide, played either by Benjamin Kolodziej or guest performers. These concerts have been quite favourably received by the community, with between 30 and 50 guests at each event, but it would be great to have more Lord of Life members attend in order to meet the regular attenders from the neighbourhood.

TWO GIVING OPTIONS AT LORD OF LIFE Electronic Giving Program Traditional Envelope Program

A New Way to Give

Our church is embracing a giving option that may be more convenient for many of our members-Electronic Giving. This giving option will work in the same manner as mortgages, loan payments, or insurance premiums that are automatically withdrawn from your checking or savings account.

To sign up for this new giving option and have your donations transferred electronically to the church account on a regular basis, please fill out an authorization form and return it to the church office. Authorization forms are available in the church office. You choose the donation frequency (weekly or monthly) and the donation amount for each fund you wish to support.

Important Benefits of Electronic Giving

Electronic Giving makes life easier for you and yields very significant benefits for our church.

Benefits for You:

- The satisfaction of giving to God first
- Easier to fulfill stewardship commitments
- Strengthen participation and support in the church
- Allows you to contribute even when you are away
- Easier personal budgeting
- More secure than bringing cash or checks to church

Benefits for Lord of Life:

- Cultivates consistent giving
- More predictable cash flow for better planning
- Less work for office staff
- Secure and easy cash maintenance

Traditional Choices Remain:

Members of Lord of Life will continue to receive envelopes, including envelopes for special collections. Offerings will continue to be taken each week as usual. Participants in the Electronic Giving program are asked to mark their envelopes "EFT" and place them in the collection basket.

If you have any questions, please contact me at 214.499.5337

"Operation Barnabas" Comes to LOL

Lord of Life Lutheran, in partnership with our Texas District and Synod's World Missions Department, will host an "Operation Barnabas" workshop on Sat., Jan. 16th from 8:30 to 4:00 pm. This all day workshop is a new ministry through our Synod's Armed Forces Commission designed to support Lutheran chaplains and reserve soldiers called to wartime duty, leaving their families behind in communities all over the state. This workshop is for pastors and lay people who want to reach out to these families and their loved one who are deployed.

Our congregation is the only congregation hosting this workshop for North Texas. Invitations have been sent out to some 160 Lutheran congregations in Area B of our Texas District.

Navy chaplain Mike Moreno is Synod's director for "Operation Barnabas" and also currently serves as the Regimental Chaplain for the 24th Marines in Kansas City, MO., with a responsibility for more than 5,000 Marines and their families.

"Lots of churches send well-received 'care packages' to soldiers serving in Iraq and Afghanistan," Moreno says, "but is there care for that soldier when he comes home? Is there care for his family when he/she is deployed?"

The "Operation Barnabas" flyer is below. If you are interested in participating in this workshop, register online at OperationBarnabas.org. If you have any questions, please contact Al Martin or Pastor.

MINISTRY TO THE ARMED FORCES

Operation Barnabas is holding a workshop in your area to help churches reach out to military families—Saturday, January 16.

In this workshop, your congregation will learn how to recruit volunteers from your church, learn how to initiate contact with your local military population, and create a vital and popular outreach that will transform your congregation and community. Some topics will include:

- Where Do We Start?
- What Is A Deployment?
- The Military Spouse
- The Military Child
- How To Make A Difference During Deployment and Afterwards
- Recognizing Veterans
- Learning About Your Local Military Resources

The workshop will run from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. and cost $25. Lunch will be provided. You will receive a workbook, a great learning experience, and have the opportunity to meet others like you who have a heart for our military families. When you leave, you will have multiple resources to take back to your congregation. We look forward to seeing you there!

Place: Lord of Life Lutheran Church, W. 15th Street, Plano, Texas, 75075-7741

Time: Saturday, January 16, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Cost: $25 (includes snacks, lunch, and materials)

Questions: Contact Chaplain Mike Moreno at Mike.Moreno@lcms.org or 402-316-8873

North Texas Free Conference What is Truth? Scripture, Luther and the Lutheran Confessions

Friday – Saturday, January 29-30, 2010 at Faith Lutheran Church, Plano

What is truth? Many people today think that truth is found from within or from our culture. However, the Word of God is the only reliable and trustworthy source of truth. It clearly reveals Christ who is the way, the truth and the life. Our Lutheran Confessions were written on the basis of the Scriptures. Luther himself confessed the truth found in God's Word giving all glory to Christ our one and only Savior. Being Lutheran today is to believe in the truths of God's Word as they are correctly explained and taught in the Book of Concord, and to confess and to teach this truth in a lost world. Faith Lutheran is sponsoring a workshop to discuss these issues January 29th and 30th.

The speakers are Rev. Dr. Scott Murray and Rev. Daniel Preus. Pastor Murray is the senior pastor at Memorial Lutheran Church in Houston. He is the Vice President of the Luther Academy, an editorial associate of LOGIA, and is working of a book on Holy Scripture for the Confessional Lutheran Dogmatics Series. He also is the author of Law, Life, and the Living God published by CPH in 2001. Pastor Preus serves on the staff at Hope Lutheran in St. Louis, MO. From 1995-2001 he was the director of Concordia Historical Institute. From 2001-2004 he was First Vice President of the Lutheran Church – Missouri Synod. Since 2005 he has been Luther Academy's first full-time Director. He has authored numerous articles, his most recent is Why I Am a Lutheran: Jesus at the Center published by CPH in 2004.

A "Fried Fish Dinner" will be held on Friday, January 29th, from 5:30-6:45. It is sponsored by the Brothers of John the Steadfast Chapter of Faith. Tickets are $12 per person and must be reserved and paid for by January 22nd.

Following the dinner, the conference will begin with Responsive Prayer at 6:45 pm, followed by sessions on "What is Scripture: A book which is the Word of God or a book that only contains the Word of God?" and "What is the Book of Concord: A faithful exposition of Scripture or merely an historical document?" At 9:15 pm there will be a Vespers service.

Matins begins at 8:30 am on Saturday, followed by "Who is the True Luther: A confessor of the historic faith or a radical reformer?" and "What is the Lutheran Church of America: A church of unchanging truth or a Lutheran church in name only?"

Registration forms are in the LOL narthex or you may register on line or print off a registration form at: http://www.faithplano.org/free_conf.html

TEEN TIMES

Happy New Year! 2010 is sure to be an exciting and spirit filled year for the IMPACT ministry at Lord of Life. As always, we should thank our gracious God who loves us so much and has granted us all of the blessings over the past year, and I am confident He will continue to do so this year. I am particularly thankful for this congregation as well as any family and friends who support the youth ministry and the purpose of bringing and keeping kids into a relationship with Jesus Christ.

As stated many times over the past few months, the Sr. IMPACT trip to the National Youth Gathering in June, 2010, to New Orleans will be a major event this year. The response to the fundraising efforts that we have had has been overwhelming, and the encouragement I have received from many people shows the evidence of God's love through you toward our youth. There are several events planned this spring, fundraising and social, for our Sr. IMPACT with the youth groups from Concordia Lutheran in Garland and St. Paul Lutheran in Plano who will travel with us to New Orleans.

The Jr. IMPACT will be highlighted with Confirmation Sunday in May when we will welcome new communicate members into our midst. It will then fall to the rest of us to see to their spiritual growth and maturity and support them in their walk with Christ.

Youth worship Sundays will continue this year and hopefully new opportunities and roles for leadership will be expanded. We have a very talented and dedicated group of teenagers and they are excited about sharing their skills in worship.

Since there has been a new name for our youth ministry established, there has also been a new symbol, or logo, for that name as well. It symbolizes the effect, or IMPACT, that our Lutheran beliefs and doctrine have on our lives as well as the lives of those around us. Luther's rose is the main feature as it comes with a force; but not a force of violence, a force of passion. We should be passionate about our Lord and Savior and show that to our neighbors. With the activities and events planned for 2010, my prayer is to see that our youth have that passion.

May God bless you and all of the ministries here at Lord of Life.

DID YOU KNOW...?

Shelby Lund has been accepted to Rhodes College in Memphis, TN and was given a merit scholarship for 4 years due to her high test scores and grades. Nice job!

Kate Lutek has been selected for the Texas All-State band three years in a row and will audition this month for a fourth. That's one talented lady!

PRAYER FOR THE MONTH:

Lord God Almighty, Your Word has been a lamp to our feet and a light to our path for many centuries. We pray for wisdom and discernment over the course of the New Year. Help us to become a light for those around us so they may see the love of Jesus Christ through us. Amen

Letter from
 Faith Comes by Hearing

Thank you and your congregation so much for your gift of $3,100 toward the Faith Comes by Hearing Military BibleStick program to minister strength and comfort to the men and women of our armed serves. Because of your sensitivity to our troops and your generous giving to this project, you are providing an opportunity for our service people in harm's way to have access to God's Word, a source of strength and true peace.

Those receiving this Audio Bible will be able to listen to God's Word when they have a few minutes of quiet time after being on duty. With knowledge of the Word, they can gain strength and clarity to carry on for one more mission – for one more day.

Those who are believers will stay close to God by listening to the Word; those who have not yet really had an opportunity to spend time in the Word of God, may, perhaps for the first time, come to know the salvation that can only come through Jesus Christ.

You are providing our troops with an amazing gift that will serve as spiritual protection for them while they serve our country. Thank you.

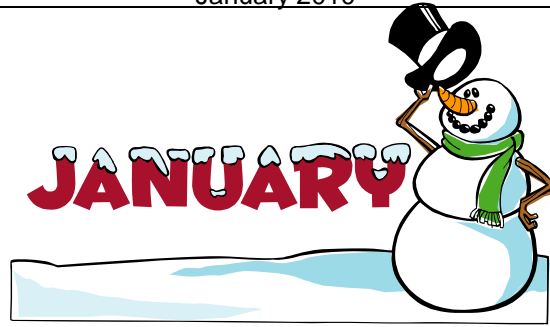

Blessings,
 Morgan Jackson, International Director
